

Rules of the game

1. Decide who will read out the Space Jobs statements
2. Everybody else stands up
3. The person reading, picks one of the jobs and reads out the 5 statements, one at a time
4. After each statement, if the people standing do not agree with the statement, they sit down
5. When all 5 statements have been read out, see who is left standing and reveal what the job is
6. Repeat for each of the 6 jobs

Space Job	Statements
Astronaut	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I get on well with people 2. I'm happy to exercise every day 3. I want to travel to other places 4. I'd love to fly a plane 5. I don't get travel sick
Engineer	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I like to solve puzzles 2. I enjoy designing and making things 3. I can work independently or as part of a team 4. I'm interested in the latest technology 5. I notice my mistakes and correct them
Scientist	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I'm curious about the world 2. I can work independently or as part of a team 3. I'm good at explaining ideas to other people 4. I like to do experiments 5. I'm patient and don't mind waiting for things
TV Presenter	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I get on well with people 2. I like to tell stories 3. I can get excited about any topic 4. I can keep calm under pressure 5. I like to travel to different places
Computer Programmer	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I like using computers and technology 2. I enjoy solving puzzles 3. I like to know how things work 4. I double check my answers 5. If I get something wrong, I will try again
Museum Curator	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. I'm interested in history and the past 2. I like to collect things 3. I'm an organised person 4. I love to share my passions with other people 5. I'm good at explaining ideas to other people